| | Dame Vivian Hunt Senior Partner, McKinsey & Company Are you an aspiring leader? Dame Vivian is a globally recognized thought leader on productivity and skills, leadership, and diversity topics. She was previously named 'the most influential black woman in Britain' by the Powerlist Foundation and The Financial Times identified her as one of the 'European Women to Watch' and more recently as the 30 most influential people in the City of London. Vivian will be sharing advice on how we can make the most of the opportunities around us and is looking forward to answering your questions. | Tuesday 27th April 5 - 6 pm https://bit.ly/3cBiJhK |
| | Rory Sutherland Vice Chairman, Ogilvy & Mather Would you like to know more about consumer behaviour? Are you interested in behavioural science and economics? Rory works with a consulting practice of psychology graduates who look for 'unseen opportunities' in consumer behaviour — these are the very small contextual changes which can have enormous effects on the decisions people make — for instance tripling the sales rate of a call centre by adding just a few sentences to the script. If you would like to know more about the contextual tweaks that transform the way that people think and act, then this is the talk for you! | Wednesday 28th April 5 - 6 pm https://bit.ly/3rAjYCi |
| | Sarah Breeden Executive Director, Bank of England Sarah is currently responsible for supervising over 500 UK banks, building societies and credit unions and she also leads the Bank of England's work on climate change. She has been lucky enough to work on lots of fascinating issues while at the Bank – including Covid, Brexit, managing the Great Financial Crisis and the policy response to that crisis. Sarah will be speaking about the risk that climate change poses to financial institutions and reflecting on her experiences of driving action on climate change forward. | Thursday 29th April 4 - 5 pm |

The talks are broadcast via Microsoft teams - you don't need an account to watch.
